Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
The Prophet's Profit

If you want to compare miracles in the first reading and the gospel, Elisha did his first, but Jesus did it better. Elisha had a hundred people to feed with twenty barley loaves and a handful of fresh grain. Jesus had five thousand people and only five loaves and a couple fish. So was Jesus trying to show up Elisha?

Neither Jesus nor Elisha ever did a miracle for their own benefit. When Elisha cure the kings servant, he refused to accept a gift, because it would imply that Elisha did the miracle, while the prophet knew that God had cured him. Jesus refused to let the crowds make him a king. The miracle of feeding the five thousand was not done just for the crowd. He was using it to teach the disciples something important. He knew there would be times when they felt overwhelmed, so he showed them what God can do with our meager abilities. There are millions of people hungry for the good news that Jesus brings to the world. Remember the miracle of the loaves when you only have a few dollars to give to the missions, or when you're not sure you know enough to teach someone about Jesus. And remember that you do those things, not to make you look holy, but to let God show his loving power. Tom Schmidt,

Decimoséptimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
La ganancia del profeta

Si quieres comparar los milagros de la primera lectura y el evangelio, Eliseo lo hizo primero, pero Jesús lo hizo mejor. Eliseo tenía que alimentar a cien personas con veinte panes de cebada y un puñado de grano fresco. Jesús tenía cinco mil personas y sólo cinco panes y un par de peces. Entonces, ¿estaba Jesús tratando de superar a Eliseo? Ni Jesús ni Eliseo nunca hicieron un milagro para su propio beneficio. Cuando Eliseo curó al siervo del rey, se negó a aceptar un regalo, porque implicaría que Eliseo hizo el milagro, mientras que el profeta sabía que Dios lo había curado. Jesús se negó a permitir que las multitudes lo hicieran rey. El milagro de alimentar a los cinco mil no se hizo sólo para la multitud. Jesús lo estaba usando para enseñar a los discípulos algo importante. Sabía que habría momentos en los que se sentirían abrumados, así que les mostró lo que Dios puede hacer con nuestras escasas habilidades. Hay millones de personas hambrientas de la buena nueva que Jesús trae al mundo. Recuerda el milagro de los panes cuando solo tienes unos cuantos dólares para donar a las misiones, o cuando no estás seguro de saber lo suficiente para enseñarle a alguien acerca de Jesús. Y recuerda que haces esas cosas, no para parecer santo, sino para permitir que Dios muestre su poder amoroso. Tom Schmidt
